Linda J. Smith-Cope POW-MIA Scholarship

Established 2019

Linda Joette Smith-Cope (1950 – 2019), joined Rolling Thunder in 2006 participating actively until her death. Linda's brother, SFC Ronald E. Smith, served in Vietnam becoming among the missing and unaccounted for on November 28, 1970 while on a mission near the tri-border area of Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. Linda was passionate and dedicated her entire life to finding out the details surrounding the mission, and the whereabouts of her beloved brother. Linda faithfully carried on the mission of Rolling Thunder in educating the public on the POW-MIA issue. She authored the book Still Waiting* which chronicles her life growing up with her brother, and the years of agony in search for answers following her brother's missing-in-action declaration by the Department of Defense.
